

SUMMARY

When a court should exercise its discretion to refuse an order for the execution of immovable property, and force litigants to litigate in the Magistrates' Court for the recovery of debts under the National Credit Act 34 of 2005.