

SUMMARY

Freedom of Expression Institute v Independent Communication Authority of South Africa.

Independent Communication Authority of South Africa Act 13/2000 (ICASA) – Jurisdiction of the Complaints and Compliance Commission (CCC) established by the ICASA Act – Complaint against SABC’s news department for black listing certain commentators and journalists – Breach of SABC licence conditions and its editorial policies – Interpretation of section 10(1)(d) of Broadcasting Act – SABC not a private broadcaster and may not deny equal time and airing of all views – Interpretation by CCC of its jurisdiction incorrect – Matter referred back to CCC comprising different members to those who decided the complaint in the first instance.