

In the matter between:

JOHANNESBURG HOUSING CORPORATION
(PTY) LIMITED

Applicant

and

THE UNLAWFUL OCCUPIERS OF THE NEWTOWN URBAN VILLAGE

Respondent

HEADNOTE

No court can guarantee a permanent home to anyone. It is beyond the power of potentates. The definition of 'homelessness' must allow a reasonable opportunity to find suitable alternative accommodation without conferring a permanency of tenure.

The best way to provide housing for everyone is not to make it difficult for landowners to evict people.
