

SUMMARY

Administrative law – rationality test versus reasonableness test – duty of decision maker to furnish reasons for administrative action – partial decision of MEC set aside – environmental law – need to draw appropriate balance between rights of individual developers and rights in the broader community