REVELAS, J:

1. The applicant was employed, according to his pleadings, from October 2001 to May 2002. He stated that the respondent had unfairly deducted R7 239,24 from his salary. He stated that this was unfair, because it related to cellphone expenses and motor vehicle expenses, which he was not obliged to pay.
2. The respondent has elected not to oppose this matter and therefore I have to accept the evidence of the applicant as it stand.

3. In the circumstances I make the following order.

1. The respondent is to pay the applicant R7 239,24.
2. Interest at the rate of 15,5% will accrue to the amount of R7 239,24 per annum.
